Bower Place Complex Needs Clinic

Low fee specialist family therapy consultations

Monday 2pm-4pm & Wednesday 5.30pm-7.30pm

Bower Place

Bower Place is offering low fee family therapy services within the Bower Place Complex Needs Clinic and the Graduate Diploma of Family Therapy and Systemic Practice. Clients are seen by qualified practitioners who are undertaking additional training as family therapists or graduate family therapists accruing additional hours to qualify for accreditation as Clinical Members of the Australian Association of Family Therapy. All work is directly supervised by Malcolm Robinson Director of the Clinic, Social Worker, Family Therapist and Mediator and Catherine Sanders, Program Director, Clinical Psychologist and Family Therapist. Both are fully qualified Clinical Members of the Australian Association of Family Therapy. The designated supervisor will meet all new clients at intake and actively participate during ongoing sessions as required.

This service provides an opportunity for clients to access specialist services, for 1.5 – 2-hour family therapy sessions. The fee for Monday afternoons and Wednesday evening consultations is $60.

Agencies are encouraged to refer clients for a specialist case review and therapeutic consultations.

Please call 8221 6066 to make an appointment or further enquiry.
